Dear Ms. Porter:

Your correspondence dated June 1, 2011, both to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the California Governor has been shared with the California Department of Education (CDE) Special Education Division.

Thank you for your concerns about a matter that concerns the Dry Creek Joint Elementary School District. For reasons of confidentiality staff at the CDE are not at liberty to discuss this matter with you. Based on your correspondence to us, we understand that you do not at this time wish to request a complaint investigation.

Should you decide in the future to submit a request for complaint investigation regarding special education under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, please send your signed request to us at the following address:

Procedural Safeguards Referral Service (PSRS)
California Department of Education
